Monday

Tyketto

RIFF-it good.Listen while you read!Trishie was a rider
'till the stranger came the way
Said it's stayed to be father
And it was gone the next daySeems like an awful lot of years got ripping for herHarry's up in college
With longs to be repay
Try to live up to expectations
And the promisses he made
Sometimes it feels like a losing battleNo one knows what good will come
All the struggling that we done
Somestimes less is so much more
Tell me what's it all for
All i need is your arms around me
All i want is your smile to light my way
Help me forget today is mondayMe, i like to worry
'cause worry is for free
With my head under the covers
I wonder what's come over meI'll stay it 'till this whole damn thing blows overWill your job be here tomorrow?
Will they sell it for a soul?
Will you be a good investiment
To something better comes aroundAll my friends are living in a state of frenzyThen it hits me like a shot
I don't need what i haven't got
Once put away my childish things
Now i'm getting them out again
All i need is your arms around me
All i want is your smile to light my way
Help me forget today is monday
All i want is to keep things simple
All i need is a reason to believe
Help me forget today...Fair winds, calm sea
Cool love, warm breeze
Bright sun, tall tree
