Nothing

Anthrax

It's difficult for me to get a grip
On what you mean
When you stick your fingers in your ear
And create another sceneYou always step into the traps
Set perfect in your path
Busy going crazy over
Whose knife's in your backDive inside your blackest stare
The one that's saving do you date
Screaming that youre scaredYou the tallest soul
With the shortest self-esteem
Painted as the victim
Who's split between the beansIt doesn't seem to matter
It's nothing
Dead a dream is dying
It's nothing
Best friend I never hadPlay me to the point of Pushing me too far away
I can only say whatever
Ambivalent to your gameYou can pretend to the mirror
It's the lie you tell yourself
And I won't walk on eggshells
That's a dance for someone elseDive inside your blackest stare
The one that's saying do you dare
Screaming that you're scaredYou the tallest soul
With the shortest self-esteem
Painted as the victim
Who's split between the beansIt doesn't seem to matter
It's nothing
Dead a dream is dying
It's nothing
Best friend I never had
