The Damage

The Swellers

I'm scared of opening the can
Scared of changing who I am
'Might've taken all I can
I'm scared of everything I am
Are you a natural woman?
I know I've got it comin..
The scent in the air
And the water runningThe damage!She said she's not telling it today
She said "Come back when you're alone"
"Come back when you're alone"
The damage The damage
The damage The damage
The damn damn dam damageAre you a natural woman?
I know I've got it comin..
Dissent in the air
And the water runningDon't give me what's in the window, babe
I want the stuff you think would never sell
Whatcha have under the counter on the bottom shelf?
I'll buy the lowdown deepdown primal truthful selfI let the genie out of the box
I let the genie out of the boxAre you a natural woman?
I know I've got it comin..
The scent in the air
And the water runningAre you a natural woman?
Tell me you're the million-to-one
Are you a natural woman?
Are you a natural woman?
I'm a natural man.
