Fallin' To Pieces

Rob Thomas

Pray you don't
Lose your place
Dead of night
UnderwayAll your days
Pass you by
Sun will rise
On your lonely, lonely, lonely, lonely, nightsPray you sleep tonight, oh yeah
Pray just a little
When every little thing
Starts fallin' to piecesTake my hand
Fall in place, soul inside
Oh, it shows in every line
That's on your faceStay with me tonight, oh yeah
Stay I'm gonna need you when
Every little thing
Starts fallin' to piecesYeah, you been around town
Take it down now, seen around
Why is it the ones you love
That makes it all so hard, upon youOh, then you let it fall behind
And in the back of your mind
You feel my loving shine
You think you might be saved, oh yeahTell me that you want someone beside you
Tell me that you want to see this through
Tell me all the times that I've been loving you
Oh, you love me, love me tooStay with me tonight, oh yeah
Stay I'm gonna need you when
Every little thing
Starts fallin' to piecesPray just a little
When every little thing
Starts fallin' to piecesEvery little thing
Starts fallin' to piecesEvery little thing
Starts fallin' to piecesEvery little thing
Starts fallin' to pieces
