

Just Like You

Lollypop

Growing up all alone,
Was so lost in the zone,
Without any other kids beside the throne of my home,
It wasn't easy, it was misery,

Couldn't find myself,
But still, I had outsiders to give me help,
Sum times it hurts that it can make me snap,
It can make me go insane,

Other times,
It can make me too nice,
They think they can ask me for anything
And take it all away from me,
I know the tricks and all
(Tell me, do it look like I was born yesterday)

Chorus:
Who are you to judge my life,
Try livin in my shoes,
For a day or two,
Thinkin' I should have it all over you,
Can still be in a suffer just like you

Verse 2:
Just like you,
I've gotta work to get mine two,
No matter where I'm from,

Just cause I come from more than you,
I'm still not rich,
Im in a deep ditch,
Sacrifices and struggles to get in,
(Tell me, does it look like I was born yesterday)

Other times,
It can make me too nice,
They think they can ask me for anything
And take it all away from me,

I know the tricks and all

Chorus:

Who are you to judge my life,
Try livin in my shoes,
For a day or two,
Thinkin' I should have it all over you,
Can still be in a suffer just like you

a breakdown

Chorus 2x

Growing up all alone,
Was so lost in the zone,
Without any other kids beside the throne of my home,
It wasn't easy, it was misery,

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnlyrics.com/>