Red Queen (Remixed By Humpty Dumpty)

Funker Vogt

You always wanna' be the best
It's a struggle without an end
Running as fast as you can
But you will never reach your goalIt's the struggle of our daily life
Of politics and war
Everyone here runs so fast
But never sees the finishAnd suddenly you find yourself
Running with the red queen
Through valleys and over hills
And sometimes against the stream
And suddenly you realize
Nothing here is what it seems
You are beyond the looking glass
Like Alice and the red queenAnd when you wonder why
You cannot get to this point
Cannot finish what you started
Then you are through the looking glass
