You'll Never Know

Assorted Jelly Beans

Shattered dreams are misunderstood
They left me stranded like I knew they would
All this pain's changing into good
'Cause you got me, you got me
Now you're the only one that I adore
'Cause everybody else has fallen short
I know you'd never leave me wanting more
Some come on, come on
Don't stop telling me
You'll never know the way it feels to be let go
The tragedy of being so alone a distant memory
My heart is telling me
That's just something you'll never know, know
I get the feeling now that You are here
Your love is something that won't disappear
So, whisper to me while You hold me near
You got me, You got me
Don't stop telling me
You'll never know the way it feels to be let go
The tragedy of being so alone a distant memory
My heart is telling me
That's just something you'll never know, know
You'll never know, know
Over and over and over again
Tell me over and over again
Don't stop telling me
You'll never know the way it feels to be let go
The tragedy of being so alone a distant memory
My heart is telling me
That's just something you'll never know, know
You'll never know, know
You'll never know, know
You'll never know, know
