

Let It Matter

Johnnyswim

I don't want to feel better
I don't want to feel good
I want to feel it hurt like losing someone should I'm gonna let my heart break
I'm gonna let it burn
I'm gonna stake my claim with the flame I know it hurled Run baby run
Don't you know I've tried
But escape is a waste ain't no use in hiding you know the best way over's through So if it matters let it matter
If your heart's breaking let it ache
Catch those pieces as they scatter
Know your hurt is not in vain Don't hide yourself from the horror
Hurt today here tomorrow
If it's fragile and it shatters
Let it matter, let it matter Ooh oh yeah yeah They say you know it ain't easy
I wouldn't want it to be Cause ease is for the shallow
But we were from the deep I don't want no distractions
Don't try to please me for one day
You are worth the joy my love, you are worth the pain Run baby run
Don't you know I've tried
But escape is a waste ain't no use in hiding
you know the best way over's through If it matters let it matter
If your heart's breaking let it ache
Catch those pieces as they scatter
Know your hurt is not in vain Don't hide yourself from the horror
Hurt today here tomorrow
If it's fragile and it shatters
Let it matter, let it matter Run baby run
Don't you know I've tried
But escape is a waste ain't no use in hiding
you know the best way over's through If it matters let it matter
If your heart's breaking let it ache
Catch those pieces as they scatter
Know your hurt is not in vain Don't hide yourself from the horror
Hurt today here tomorrow
If it's fragile and it shatters
Let it matter, let it matter If it's fragile and it shatters

Let it matter, let it matter
