Stuck In My Head

Tone Damli

Tone:
I am going insane from the words that you said
Stuck in my head
Stuck in my head
So I twist and turn ain't going nowhere
Stuck in my head, ohVinni:
Shit,
I can see you smile inside my mind, yeah
And everytime I close my eyes
My thoughts they seem to find you
Just like some rhino spinnin' round, spinnin' round
The sound of fuckin' silence brings me down, brings me down
Cus I can just catch you with
This chick I could kick in with
Wanna give her hips a grip
Close up two bits
Man shes so damn hot its ridiculous
So listen,
Your whispers
Because of my condition
I got you stuck in my head
It's like, shit...Tone:
I am going insane from the words that you said
Stuck in my head
Stuck in my head
So I twist and turn ain't going nowhere
Stuck in my head, ohI go back
I go forth
I go up
I go down
But I can't seem to shake it off
Like a favourite song playing on and on (yeah)
Stuck in my head (yeah) ohVinni:
I like the thought of you on top of me, oh
The world is absolute (?)
Your curve turn me to a rock I find it's hard to breathe
Her burnin' heart that beats
Beats me with desire
'till its simply just a symbol of the symptoms of acquire

So you and I,
We should get involved
Girl you about to get a collar
Put you on a pedestal and set it off
Put you on a ride,
Better then you ever thought
Never gon' forget it
I'm gon' cover you like air assaultBoth:
Get you from my head
To my bed
From my mind
You will pray
All these clothes
Baby what they doin' here?Vinni:
I'm getting new ideas
I'm tearin'em ??
And its just the way I clearly imagined it
God damn!Tone:
I am going insane from the words that you said
Stuck in my head
Stuck in my head
So I twist and turn ain't going nowhere
Stuck in my head, ohI go back
I go forth
I go up
I go down
But I can't seem to shake it off
Like a favorite song playing on and on
Stuck in my head ohI try to ignore my feelings
But I cant seem to let them go, no...
Every minute feels like hours
Tells me all
I need to know
So come a little closer
You make me feel so right
Lets have a damn good crazy sleepless night[I am going insane from the words that you said
Stuck in my head
