

Long Gone Dream

Kevin Welch

I open my eyes sometimes in the morning
I can taste your kisses, that's the way it seems
Try to hold on, keep on believing
But it's too late now, it's just another long gone dream
I've been thinkin' 'bout rain, thinking 'bout sunshine
Thinking 'bout you, you and me
Thinking 'bout a way to get me out of these memories
Baby by now, it's nothing but a long gone dream
Gonna burn this bridge down
Leave the embers smokin'
I ain't ever comin' back
There's no sense hopin'
It's just another long gone dream
Gotta move on, lord I know that I need to Hangin' round here is gonna be the death of me
I've done my time, holed up and lonesome
All hung up on nothing but a long gone dream
Gonna burn this bridge down
Leave the embers smokin'
I ain't ever comin back
There's no sense hopin'
It's just another long gone dream
Look at me now, movin' down the line
Leavin nothing behind me, nothing but a long gone dream
