

Angel

Gotthard

I need a woman, that holds on that gives me time to think it over time for movin' on that's all i want, right now, by me I wanna meet a real heart, a true one too many words, too many lies bring confusion in my mind i gotta break out
'cause i can't stand it anymore, no more More that i want, more that i need more that i want, more that i bleed can anybody find me an Angel, angel, i'm crying out for you tonight oh angel, are you there or in my mind i want you to believe me, please take me there Sometimes i dream, and i wish to have a little hand to carry me far away from what i see if i only could have you, right now, by me I wanna face a real world, a true one
too many words, too many lies bring confusions in my mind
i gotta break out
i want you to believe me,... right now Angel on my mind, oh you're so hard to find
