I Really Miss You

Leon Russell

I really miss you, I will forever more
Let me say the things I used to just ignore Always on my mind, I tell myself that I'm Only wasting time away from you
it's trueI need to kiss you, not here at the door
Cause I still feel the things I used to feel before
There's no wrong or right
There's only us tonight
If you turn off the light, I'll know which way to go with you
I was a fool to try and break our love
I was a fool too blind to see
I won't make the same mistake, my love
If you'll come back to meI really miss you, I will forever more Let me say the things I used to say before Holding you like this, the memories with each kiss
Tell me why I miss you so I can't let go
Of youI won't make the same mistake, my love
If you come back to me
I need to kiss you, but not here at the door
Cause I still feel the things I used to feel before
There's no wrong or right
There's only us tonight
If you turn off the light, I'll know
Which way to go
With youDo you miss me too?
As much as I miss you?
