

Minimum Day

Cold War Kids

Remember when I saw a movie 'bout the rapture strange seventies, zombie movie eschatology one day the nonbelievers woke to alarm clocks empty houses barking dogs half the human race was goneoh! the minimum day the minimum day took them away
ripped me a new behind what happens to the people on a plane if the pilot might spontaneously disappear when it goes down for real the motherless babies and the quixotic teenagers cryone upon a time even Tom needed proof and Peter would sell you out deep down Judas was a sweet kid James had the nerve to ask you for a vip I look around and say on my hands no I cant hide 'em on my knees
might as well just lay down and die oh! the minimum day
the minimum day take me awaynow I'am all grown up I see the scare tactic to get the kids to obey the grand inquisitor say a gun to the back make a happy man march but Neil Young hit the mark with only love can break your heart
