

Heaven Came Down

Marie Barnett

If not for Your mercy, if not for Your kindness
If not for Your healing love, where would I be
If not for Your patience, if not for Your goodness
If not for Your saving grace, where would I be

I was lost when You found me, born without hope
~Till with faith, I looked to the cross

Heaven came down, lifted me up
Now Iâ€™m forgiven and all things are new Heaven came down, judgment is broken
Mercy has triumphed and Iâ€™m found in You

In You Iâ€™m forgiven, in You Iâ€™m made righteous
In You Iâ€™m made whole again, it all comes from You
Your blood is my ransom, Your love is my fortress
Your Spirit my counselor, it all comes from You
