One Man's Heartache

Stonebolt

l'm moving on, got to leave you behind
I?ve been looking for something I can?t seem to fInd
We?ve been movin' toward each other for quite some time
I know you got someone else but I still want you to be mine

Just to have you by my sled
*One man?s heartache is another man?s wife
Won?t somebody tell me just how to feel
Cause I can?t listen to my own thoughts anymore
So to flip a coin is all that l can do, yea yea yea

Even though my heart is aching, l?m still in love with you
I know he's hurtin? you baby; you can?t say lt's not true
I can tell by the tears in your eyes
What you' really like to do
Leave your hanged blues behind
And start your e brand new

And I know that you?ve been feeling it too
Don?t you know?
Repeat*
One man's heartache is another man?s wife
Won?t somebody tell me just how to feel
Won?t somebody tell me new

Repeat*
