

I Love You Anyway

Mocca

its 10 pm and you're late again and i can understand what kept you so long now look at you
wearing that shirt again
dont you realize how ugly that thing is(2x)
but even so
i love you anyway
no matter how things have gone you always have menow here it comes you complain again
complain about everything
its driving me mad
now look at you
but even so
i love you anyway
you always have me
