Love, Don't Be A Stranger

Sara Evans

Love, I haven't seen you in a long time
Since then, I ain't been worth a dime
Hasn't been that long but it feels like years
Last time it could have worked out better
But you know we belong together
Love, don't be a stranger 'round here
You know your way around my heart
But I know you don't see well in the dark
So I leave a light on and you won't get scared
In the morning or even at midnight
You can come on in, it's all right
Love, don't be a stranger
Don't worry 'bout the danger
Love, don't be a stranger 'round here
Last time you went away you made me cry, cry, cry
Said, I didn't need you anyway but I lied, lied, lied
Love, don't be a stranger
Don't worry 'bout the danger
Love, don't be a stranger 'round here
Love, I'm a little bit smarter
And I'll try a little bit harder
This time I won't wind up in tears
Love, now that we're talking
Maybe you'll come around more often
Love, don't be a stranger
Don't worry 'bout the danger
Love, don't be a stranger 'round here
Last time you went away you made me cry, cry, cry
Said, I didn't need you anyway but I lied, lied, lied
Love, don't be a stranger
Don't worry 'bout the danger
Love, don't be a stranger 'round here
