End Begins

Earth Crisis

The end begins around us
The signs are too clear to deny
As a new millennium begins
Once faint hoof beats become clearerAn impassable void's creation
Between overlords and consumer drones
Rushes towards its completion
The constitution's ablazeFreakishness becomes normalcy
The inverse of morality
Abominations praised
And met with open armsRome and Babylon's rise
Nears its final stage
Conform, accept in silence
Or die in the mob's rageHostility generated
From above
Victims pitted
Against each otherAttention's diverted away
From the actual antagonists
Afflict with sickness to enforce their cure
Synthetic peace carved out of madnessIs the stage set for the Demonic tyrant's rise?
More and more technology seems geared
To divide, monitor and terrorizePersonal freedoms, surrendered
The means for self-defense given away
Marshall law in a new empire
Caesar takes his throneContain, control, to dominate
Contain, control, exterminate
Contain, control, to dominate
Contain, control, exterminateContain, control, to dominate
Contain, control, exterminate
Contain, control, to dominate
Contain, control, exterminateContain, control, to dominate
Contain, control, exterminate
Contain, control, to dominate
Contain, control, exterminate
