

When Will It Be Me

Yasmeen

I see the couples all walking by
Feel like I don't wanna be alone today
So glad no one can see what I hide deep inside

How it feels to be the girl who never gets the right guy
Tell me why when there's so much I've got to give
I wake up reaching out in the night

Ready to hold him tight
Till I realize that nobody is there
When will it be me?
When will I be the one somebody's dreaming of?
When's it gonna be?
When will I find my heart lying

Inside the arms that never let me go

I'd really like to know when will it be me
My friends seem to have all the luck

Feels like love knocks on their door and walks right in
I know that I am worthy of what I've been wishing for
I can't wait no more

There's no where to be found
When will it be me?
When will I be the one somebody's dreaming of?
When's it gonna be?
When will I find my heart lying

Inside the arms that never let me go

I'd really like to know when will it be me
Feeling his tender touch, talking about forever together

Giving him all my love that's been trying to break free
Don't wanna be alone no more, I'm telling you what I need
I want someone who loves me for me and when will it be

Wonder when it will be me
When will I be the one somebody's dreaming of

When will I find my heart lying inside the arms

When will it be me?
When will I be the one somebody's dreaming of?
When will I find my heart lying inside the arms?

I ask myself when will it be me
