La Trieste

Reamonn

Tic toc the feeling stops, I sense that inner drop, it's inside my head
I feel your energy, my old age enemy, hey, what's that you said
I think of all those lies, I ask the question why we did what we did?
La trieste calls my name, I feel I go insane, I thought she was deadLa trieste where are you now? Do you hurt, hurt me somehow
La trieste where are you now? Do you hurt, hurt me somehowI wash in pores of rain to hide that hated pain for someone who's dead
I feel her come for me, my old age enemy why can't we forget
I feel it coming on, that feeling's growing strong stronger than hate
For what I used to be with you controlling me
I killed you but still you're not deadLa trieste where are you now? Do you hurt, hurt me somehow
La trieste where are you now? Do you hurt, hurt me somehowIt's a feeling, it's a feeling, it's inside my head
It's a feeling, it's a feeling, I killed you but still you're not deadLa trieste where are you now? Do you hurt, hurt me somehow
La trieste where are you now? Do you hurt, hurt me somehowIt's killing me, it's killing me, it's killing me, it's killing me
It's killing me, it's killing me, it's killing me
I killed you but still you're not deadLa trieste where are you now? Do you hurt, hurt me somehow
La trieste where are you now? Do you hurt, hurt me somehowIt's killing me, it's killing me, it's killing me, it's killing me
It's killing me, it's killing me, it's killing me, it's killing me
