Speak Now

Socialburn

Speak now or forever hold your peace
Life's too short so would you walk with me
You're too scared to say what you need from me
When I need you to speak now or forever holdYour arms around me, I can see the sun
But it's fading out, it's fading out, it's fading outAnd you swore that you would change
So what happens now is what happens now
And I swore, I'd rearrange
And make time for us have we lost all trustSpeak now or forever hold your tongue
When your mouth is dry, my bodies numb
You're too scared to say what you need from me
When I need you to speak now or forever holdYour arms around me, I can see the sun
But it's fading out, it's fading out, it's fading outWhen you swore that you would change
So what happens now is what happens now
And I swore, I'd rearrange
And make time for us have we lost all trust(Speak now or forever hold your peace)
And I swore that I would change
(Speak now or forever hold your peace)
And I swore that I would change
(Speak now or forever hold your peace)
And I swore that I would change for youWith arms around me, I can see the sun
But it's fading out, it's fading out, it's fading outWhen you swore that you would change
So what happens now is what happens now
And I swore, I'd rearrange
And make time for us, have we lost all trust(Speak now or forever hold your peace)
And I swore that I would change
(Speak now or forever hold your peace)
And I swore that I would change
(Speak now or forever hold your peace)
And I swore that I would change for you(Speak now or forever hold your peace)
And I swore that I would change
(Speak now or forever hold your peace)
And I swore that I would change
(Speak now or forever hold your peace)
And I swore that I would change for youSpeak now or forever hold your
