

All Because Of You

Julia Volkova

eyes wide open try to fall asleep..... yeah yeah for a second i can hardly breathe..... yeah yeah now i just hate to love you but i can't fake, wish i could be much stronger, cuz ' i'm about to break
,(chorus)
i do the things i do
to the things
to the things i do
all because of you
cuz' of you
do the things i do
to the things i do
all because of you youfall to pieces, no more tears to cry..... yeah yeah gave you all i had and found a lie..... yeah yeah
but i can't fake, wish i could be much stronger, cuz ' i'm about to break
to the things i do
all because of you
cuz' of you
do the things i do
to the things i do
all because of you you suddenly, found myself broken down, on my knees hoping that someone will bring back reality all of this happening only of you(chorus)
i do the things i do
to the things i do
all because of you
cuz' of you
all because of you
do the things i do

to the things i do
all because of you you (2x)
