

30 Minute Love Affair

Paloma Faith

30 minute love affair
All in the blink of an eye
There you were standing there
I heard an angel cry
Runaway lover
I soon discovered
It was best when we left it
I'll never forget it
Our 30 minute love affair
The city lead me out one night
Through lonely streets and neon light
Searching again
I met a stranger singing songs
Sat in that doorway I belonged
With him
Just talking. He was so beautiful there in my dreams
I left my heart and my memories
30 minute love affair
All in the blink of an eye
There you were standing there
I heard an angel cry
Runaway lover
I soon discovered
It was best when we left it
I'll never forget it
Our 30 minute love affair
He told me he'd be there tomorrow
I knew where he led I would follow
I flew
And he knew
When I went back he had disappeared
My hopeful smile had turned to tears
Let down
No sight nor sound
Sometimes it's better just to let them go
Cause your illusion's more than what you could know
30 minute love affair
All in the blink of an eye
There you were standing there
I heard an angel cry
Runaway lover
I soon discovered
It was best when we left it
I'll never forget it

Our 30 minute love affair Falling from the sky for him I'll never

Regret it

He took my breath away

And although it was the shortest time

I'll never forget it

He gave me such a beautiful lie

Oh my 30 minute love affair

All in the blink of an eye

There you were standing there

I heard an angel cry

Runaway lover

I soon discovered

It was best when we left it

Now I'll never forget it

It was best when we left it

Now I'll never forget it

Our 30 minute love affair 30 minute love affair

Our 30 minute love affair
