Elessar UK

For the first time in your life, take a breath as you step outside
Draw a map with the lights down
And follow every step that you can
Cause the grass is always greener and the glass is so much clearer
You can hide behind your lies
And when the time is right, then let us run away

And I don't want to sleep alone tonight
Still I feel the pressure, the worlds on my shoulders
And I don't want to be alone tonight
Still I feel the worlds tough
Say it till my lungs burn

Can you see the horizon
Another day you'll walk through the unknown
And if you fall will you stay down
Or stand up and start over again
Cause I don't want to be a lesson
A new vision of expectation

You can hide behind your lie
But when the time is right then let us run away

And I don't want to sleep alone tonight
Still I feel the pressure, the worlds on my shoulders
And I don't want to be alone tonight
Still I feel the worlds tough
Say it till my lungs burn

I don't want to be perfect with the weight on my hands
I don't want to be perfect the with the weight on

I don't want to be perfect with the weight of the the world in my hands
Oh I don't want to be perfect with the weight of the world in my hands
World in my hands
I don't want to perfect with the weight of the world in my hands
I don't want to be perfect with the weight of the world in my hands

I don't want to be perfect with the weight of the world in my hands
I don't want to be perfect with the weight of the world in my hands

I don't want to be perfect
