Talking In Circles

So They Say

Could I stand in the back
And watch them rip it apart
Will they ask and ask till
They can't take the embarrassment anymoreI'm talking in circles to amuse myself
And they'll lie without an alibi
And they should have saved it
For somebody elseTaken what was innocent, now I'm the one held in contempt
I put my life in idol hands, don't ever forget, I'll never forget
And I'll try not to make a sound and stay until what's lost is found
I put my life in idol hands, don't ever forget, I'll never forgetEmotions takeover
You'll discover you're not in control anymore
I grabbed for your hand
But I meant to reach for the doorI'm talking in circles to amuse myself
And they'll lie with out an alibi
They should have saved it
For somebody elseTaken what was innocent, now I'm the one held in contempt
I put my life in idol hands, don't ever forget, I'll never forget
And I'll try not to make a sound and stay until what's lost is found
I put my life in idol hands, don't ever forget, I'll never forgetTaken what was innocent, now I'm the one held in contempt
I put my life in idol hands, don't ever forget, I'll never forget
And I'll try not to make a sound and stay until what's lost is found
I put my life in idol hands, don't ever forget, I'll never forget
