

Unconditional

Joshua Rogers

Thinking about some of the wrongs that I've done and I'm ashamed to think of all the times that I've failed you, yet still you never changed and I can't quite figure out the reasons why lord why you care you're always there(Chorus)How do you explain the way you care for me.
Why do you keep me safely right in your arms.
No love can compare
so incredibly rare
so wonderful father your love is unconditionalIn spite of all the many lies that I've told you still forgave me.In spite of all my failed attempts to show the same compassion that you've showed you're the only one who seems that know my heart and mesmerized by how amazing you are(Chorus)How do you explain the way you care for me.
Why do you keep me safely right in your arms.
No love can compare so incredibly rare so wonderful father you love is unconditionalSo show me what I need to do just so I can love like you just like you and teach me how to walk like you how to talk like you and all that I do(Chorus)How do you explain the way you care for me.
Why do you keep me safely right in your arms.
No love can compare
so incredibly rare
so wonderful father your love is unconditional x 3
