Tomorrow

Edguy

Another dawn is coming
A new day has begun
An eagle is rising slowly into the skies of no return
Disappearing in the growing sunSo proud and so beautiful
Thinking about tomorrow, with tears in his eyes
Once a lot of brothers spread their wings
Now he's left alone in a worls of liesCry for tomorrow
Why don't we hear the eagle's cries
Living in sorrow
Why don't we help him to surviveOnce a dignity - a mighty sign of pride
Strong and proud and free
A symbol of eternity - why don't we see
We can't survive, if we don't realize
Our world is place that can't be created twice
