Deftones

No!
It's not that I care
(Truly)
But you're that girl
(With sharp teeth)
Who grabs at the walls
And pulls me down Well here's my new address
Six six four, oh I forget No!
It's not that I care
(Truly)
But you're that girl
(With gold teeth)
Who snaps at the walls
And won't calm down Well, here's my new address
Six one five, oh I forget
There's all your evidence
Now take it home and run with it Now write it down
Now did you get it?
Get it, so write it down
Now did you get it?
Get it, so write it down
Now did you get it?
Get it, so write it down
Now did you get it? get it? Well, here's my new address
Six six five, oh I confess
There's all your evidence
Now take it home and fuck with it Now write it down
Now did you get it?
Get it, so write it down
Now did you get it?
Get it, so write it down
Now did you get it?
Get it, so write it down
Now did you get it? get it? So write it down
Now did you get it?
Get it, so write it down
Now did you get it?
Get it, so write it down
Now did you get it?

Get it, so write it down
