Warm and Willing

Johnny Mathis

Love is for the warm and willing
Waiting for the warm and willing
Love is ours to take or toss asideTake this promise to your heart
And let your lips repeat
"Kisses are too sweet to be denied"Show me that you're warm and willing
Make each golden moment thrilling
Give my empty arms a welcome signWe can make the stars go spinning
And the earth stand still
If you're warm and willing to be mineTake this promise to your heart
And let your lips repeat
"Kisses are too sweet to be denied"Show me that you're warm and willing
Make each golden moment thrilling
Give my empty arms a welcome signWe can make the stars go spinning
And the earth stand still
If you're warm and willing to be mineIt would be Heavenly
If you're warm and willing to be mine
