

I Desire More

Crystal Aikin

I'm needing, I'm wanting
There is something about You
I need to know more of

When I fall on my knees
It's in my prayer, oh God
Take me beyond the veil
Give me more of You, You

Oh Lord, and if it's not too much to ask
I want a deeper relationship with You
I want the oil of God to flow in me
Through and through

Here I am on bended knees
With outstretched arms crying Lord
Not my will, but Your will
Less of me, and more of You
I need more, I need more

As I go before Your throne
I give the praise to You alone
I lift my hands and give You worship
For You are God alone

Let Your glory fill this place
Show Your hand of mercy
I can't speak right until You come, Lord
Let Your presence fall on me

Here I am, accept my words
Accept my praise
I'm broken, I'm thirsty
Let Your blood flow through my veins
I desire more of You

Here I am, accept my words
I'm broken, I'm thirsty
Let Your blood flow through my veins
I want more, must have more

I gotta have more, I need more

I need more to lean right
I need more to walk right
I must sing for more, sing it for more
Many more

Here I am Lord
Yes, I'm here waiting on You
I need Your hand to be stretched
Down upon me, yes Lord
I need more of You, Lord
I need more of You, Lord

What will I be without You?
What can I do without You?
I'm yearning for You, I'm addicted for You
I'm crying for You, yes Lord

I'm broken, I'm thirsty
And I desire more
Listen, shower down on me
[Incomprehensible] oh, I need more
More, more, I need more
