Love Is Love

Rupaul

writers: RuPaul/ Sami McKinneyI see you look at me and judge me with your eyes
Your words are meant to hurt and cut me down to size
Why must I explain to you ? he loves me , I love him too !
What on earth has that to do with you ?So you criticize . do you realize,
I'm a person just like you ?
Not gon' run and hide, just cause you decide
You don't like the things I do .All I know is love is love . in this world there ain't enough
So why you wanna mess with us ? when you know love is love
Really ain't no difference , the why or what or who you're with
So why you have to question it , don't you know love is love.Open up your eyes and you will see that love is blind
Take the time to understand the way I feel inside.
Like a river it must flow , love will choose the way it goes.
In your heart of hearts I think you know.Cause if you've ever loved , then you know that love's Heaven sent down from above.
What do you give a damn if he holds my hand
Or the love that we share between us ?
