Tongue

Bell X1

This one's for you
This one's for me
This one's for you
What must I beI've got a nervous feeling
Over you
But who am I fooling,
I like airline foodI need to feel whole
I need to feel young again
I need to be bold
And start using my tongue againThey can laugh as they cry
They can cut till I bleed
I ain't losing
'cause this one's for meThis one's for meOh this one's for you
This one's for youThis one's for you
For you
For you
To tell me how the fuck must I beI've got a nervous feeling
And it's over you
But who am I fooling,
I like airline foodI now need to feel whole
I need to feel young again
I need to be bold
And start using my tongue againThey can laugh as they cry
They can cut till I bleed
But I ain't losing
'cause this one's for meHa ha ha ha
