

Sleep With One Eye Open (Tek One Remix)

Bring Me the Horizon

Ripped apart in minutes what was built in seven years
The ink scarred on your back may as well of disappeared
For as long as I remember
You sold everything you owned
But now you sold our friendship
You're on your fucking [x2]
[x3]

Ripped apart in minutes what was built in seven years
The ink scarred on your back may as well of disappeared
For as long as I remember
You sold everything you owned
But now you sold our friendship
You're on your fucking
Own

If I had it my way
I'd slit your throat with the knife you left in my back (back, back..)
All the shame, all this guilt, all this regret, that's me
I'm inside of you [x4]
