Too Early to Tell

Carl Wilson

Hey, do you think that we can make it work honey?
Are you under the spell?Is it too early to tell?
Is it too early to tell?Come on and catch up to the music anyway
Make your mind up todayIs it too early to tell?
Is it too early to tell?Give me about an hour
I wanna groove and hear your song
Let's take a little bit of time now
Can't rush to get it on
Wait a minute here
Don'tcha move too fast
Gotta play this game to last
Don'tcha get the feeling?
We can rock it tonight
Everything is going just rightIt's time to rock and roll
And let it all come out
That's what it's all about
I got you under the spell
It's not too early to tellGive me about an hour
I wanna groove and hear your song
Let's take a little bit of time now
Can't rush to get it on
Wait a minute here
Don'tcha move too fast
Gotta play this game to last
Don'tcha get the feeling?
We can rock it tonight
Everything is going just rightNow hear the thunder
Hear the rhythm and rhyme
It's coming right on time
It's not too early to tell
It's not too early to tellNow hear the thunder
Hear the rhythm and rhyme
It's coming right on time
It's not too early to tell
It's not too early to tellNow hear the thunder
Hear the rhythm and rhyme
It's coming right on time
It's not too early to tell
It's not too early to tellNow hear the thunder

Hear the rhythm and rhyme
It's coming right on time
It's not too early to tell
It's not too early to tellNow hear the thunder
Hear the rhythm and rhyme
It's coming right on time
It's not too early to tell
It's not too early to tell
