Sympozium

Dimmu Borgir

Chains of despair, cloaked by darkness
The thundering echoes of great destruction to come
Mankind's mysteries, the dying world
The dying worldMadness in its sweetest form
What shrivels and dies must face the tempest
The angelic heaven bows to the ultimate truth
And melancholy grewAnticipation meander through madness
Condemned to the same horrid fate
Insanity applauds
How sharp the awakeningPale as disease
Mocking, maddening
Give up the ghost
Cease the gloomy awakeningThe angelic heaven bows to the ultimate truth
And melancholy grewAnticipation meander through madness
Condemned to the same horrid fate
Insanity applauds
How sharp the awakeningPale as disease
Mocking, maddening
Give up the ghost
Cease the gloomy awakeningHistory foretold, the hidden stigmata
Totally annihilating the ecstasies innumerable
Materialize the vision
Give up the ghost
