

Vampire

Xandria

Dark are the streets, gloom's creeping out of the walls
Dirt comes alive and all the neon lights call
Demons and fools and a lady of black
She's of the kind nighttime insomniac
She sees the prey and she's aware
The times are hard but she don't care
She's a vampire
(Desire darker than black)
She's a vampire
(Reach higher, no turning back)
Her wings are curtains of the night
She knows no wrong or right
Dead are the places where this goddess has been Cold is the skin that this creature has seen
Her universe is an ocean of blood
Her dining table the cradle of mud
She sees the prey and she's aware
The times are hard but she don't care
She's a vampire
(Desire darker than black)
She's a vampire
(Reach higher, no turning back)
Her wings are curtains of the night
She knows no wrong or right, vampire
The night is blind, the mistress
She is calling you to be by her side forevermore
Follow her until her thirst is sated
An immortal lie, heart blood
Can't help yourself
She's got you paralyzed
So would you kiss the sun goodbye
And give your life to never die?
She's a vampire
(Desire darker than black)
She's a vampire
(Reach higher, no turning back)
She's a vampire
(Desire darker than black)
She's a vampire
(Reach higher, no turning back)
