All That We Perceive

Thievery Corporation

Everything that's real and everything unrealized
All infinity starts falling from your eyes
We are fluid dreams, vivid memories
All uncertainty leads to eternityAll that we perceive in every mystery
Who are we? What we see? Oh, I can't comprehend
Who are we? What we see? Whoa, I can't comprehendIlluminating love falls from the skies
To water the illusions in our eyes
All that we desire is all we fear
All our aspirations grow unclearWe feel endlessly, beyond all gravity
Who are we? What we see? Oh, I can't comprehend
Who are we? What we see? Whoa, I can't comprehend
