

Dancing Shoes

Dev

Iâ€™m putting on my dancing shoes tonight
Ten thousand people waiting for
Me i can hear them outside
From the curtain i set behind
The drums kicking and the lights go down
My heart beat drowns out the sound
The hands go out by singing my song
And the thousand voices sing alone.

I used to lie away
Here the crowd wrote every word i say
That stars they used to shine so right
They were odd replace by here you ..
And the .. ooh
They took harder from the places that we know

Iâ€™m putting on my dancing shoes tonight
Ten thousand people waiting for
Me i can hear them outside
From the curtain i set behind
The drums kicking and the lights go down
My heart beat drowns out the sound
The hands go out by singing my song
And the thousand voices sing alone.

Can you hear , close your eyes
Â side by side
For you to sing, sing for you, for you
Our waiting dancing shoes
Iâ€™m waiting dancing shoes

2 x

Are you out there?
Can you hear me?
Are you out there?
Can you hear me?

Iâ€™m putting on my dancing shoes tonight
Ten thousand people waiting for

Can you hear , close your eyes
    Â side by side
For you to sing, sing for you, for you
    Our waiting dancing shoes
    IÂ'm waiting dancing shoes
    IÂ'm waiting dancing shoes
    IÂ'm waiting dancing shoes
