

Flying Forward

Alyson Stoner

This is my time
A send off to you
Separate lies from the truth
How I'd run to you
And believed I was safe in your hold
Now I see through you
As I let go
I'm flying forward
Above the past
Into who I am
Soar above the skies
Flying forward
I see the path
I know what lies ahead
And I'm never going back again
When the rain begins
I don't have to fall
And if the storm rolls in
I can dance through it all
The sweet surrender
Of a heart
Being set free
And I remember where
I want to be
Flying forward
Into who I am
Soar above the skies
Flying forward
I see the path
I know what lies ahead
And I'm never going back again
And I won't look away
From where I've been
Cause I've learned from my mistakes
I am changed
I am changed
Ohh
No I'm never holding back again

No I'm never going back again
Flying forward
Above the past into who I am
Soar above the skies
Flying forward
I see the path
I know what lies ahead
Flying forward
Flying forward
Oh I'm flying
Said I'm flying
And I'm never going back again
No I'm never going back again
