Private Times

Al B. Sure!

Understand, alright, can you feel it, baby?
'Cause I work, ya know what I'm saying?
Alright, let's goI never have no private times
(I never)
I think I'm going to lose my mind for sure
Ooh I never have no private times
(I never)
I think I'm going to lose my mind for sureThere was a time I'd never be alone
(He's always with someone)
Never have no private times
(Or never even peace of mind)I just want to have someone
(So please y'all)
Just forget the, "Rescue Me", yeah, ohI never thought I would say this before
Understand, I'm just chillin' by myself
(So please, girl)
So please, girl don't walk right through the doorI guess I've always grown up thinking
Everything should always go my way
(And anytime it didn't)
I would have a game to play just to get my way
(And when he did)
You'd see me smile for a mileDevante', get nasty
Aw, I'm with this
Wild Kyle West please
I think I'm gonna lose my mindI want your love
Can't get enough without no private times
I never have no private timesI need your love, I'll give you more
Just give me private times
Just time, ohI never, I think I'm, for sure
I never, I think I'm, for sure
WestervilleI think I'm gonna lose my mind
I never, I think I'm, I hope I'm for sure
It ain't hard
