

Hugh Dallas

Mogwai

This fan might set the whole place on fire
I walked out of recriminations
Walk out today is good for my soul
Today is a day I try to keep my eyes shut
Hold up the light, cold for a time
Is the light so bad, were we so bad today?
I won't be long, I almost fell today
[Unverified] I must have forgot some good times
Who's not been told that it's bad to sleep too long?
I sometimes regret knowing what to do
It's time that you left, look back again tomorrow
Is the light so bad, were we so bad today?
I won't be long, I almost fell today
Is the light so bad, were we so bad today?
I won't be long, I almost fell today
