Too Far Gone

The Answer

You don't know, you can't know, just who I am
You don't know, you can't know, just who I amYou say you gotta' name and a number
Well we're gonna' find you anyway, yeah
Communication's lost throughout the land
Oh, you offer me your guilty handBecause you're too far gone with the money you spent
Take a stab at a war, you work for the governmentToo far gone
You're too far gone, I say
You're too far gone
But you keep pushing harder and harderThink you got a vote from the people
Now you've got to fight for you're right to stay, ooh, yeah you do
Disillusion can't connect the world
I can't believe in your fucking law, no moreBecause you're too far gone with the money you've spent
Take a stab at war, you're working for the governmentToo far gone
You're too far gone, I say
You're too far gone
But you keep pushing harder and harderYou take the free from the people
I guess you got the human disease
You stand tall you look strong
But you're taking the free out of me
Yeah, out of meAnd it's not exactly hard to seeYou don't know, you can't know, just who I am
You don't know, you can't know, just who I amYou're too far gone
You're too far gone, I say
You're too far gone
But you keep pushing harder and harder, yeah
Oh, oh, oh
Oh, oh, oh, oh, ooh

Songwriters
Heatley, James / Mahon, Paul / Neeson, Cormac / Waters, MichaelPublished by Lyrics Â© EMI Music Publishing, Sony/ATV Music Publishing LLC

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/