

Crave

Dani Bell & The Tarantist

Can we sink
Can we drink
Further into the ether we go

I'm close to nights misleading
And old papers I've been reading
Jaundice and ripped and needing
I'll find something that fails to bore me
While you ignore me

But I don't want to leave this
And I do not need this

With all our misfit glory
I love when you censor me
I crave a wave of options
And under the flood I watch them

But I don't want to leave this
And I do not need this

My pride was tied and tempted
Been tried and tired and empty
How long can you resent me
Your silence answers plenty

But I don't want to leave this
And I do not need this
