

Take You Away

Orange 9mm

Up tight, you better realize
I never hide and I'll never get high alone
'Cuz of the simple factSome say you like to get a lot
I call it greed but I will never get high alone
It just don't mean the same thingThere won't be nothing that will tear us apart
Can't take you away
I said, there won't be nothing that will tear us apart
Can't take you away from meYou're so blind, open your eyes
I know you'll see that I'll never get mine alone
'Cuz I don't care about itDiseased, you better realize
I'm on my knees and I'll never get mine alone
It just don't mean the same thingThere won't be nothing that will tear us apart
Can't take you away
I said, there won't be nothing that will tear us apart
Can't take you away from meThere won't be nothing that will tear us apart
Can't take you away
I said, there won't be nothing that will tear us apart
Can't take you away from meThere won't be nothing that will tear us apart
Can't take you away
I said, there won't be nothing that will tear us apart
Can't take you away from me
