Missing Every Second

Bonefield

Take a look at your faces, all angry and sad
Crying these tears, like your life is so bad
Take a look at yourself, don't you need anything
Maybe you want a place, in the all we in

Who do you thing you are, to thing it and understand
There's no way to solve, all the troubles we're in
Well this world is not made, for those of my kind
But it brought us together, before this disguise get on mine

Look at us now, take a good look around
To the possibilities, all the opportunities
C'mon look at us now, take a good look around
To the possibilities, all the opportunities
You'll miss it every second.

Sorry mothers and fathers, we took your sons and daughters away
Don't blame our friends, they know
That how we always wanted to go

Look at us now, take a good look around
(That's how we wanted to go)
To the possibilities, all the opportunities
(That's how we wanted to go)
Look at us now, take a good look around
(That's how we wanted to go)
To the possibilities, all the opportunities
(That's how we wanted to go)

And you'll miss it every second.
