Shelter Me

Carolyn Marie

He was drowning on his own air.
Waiting around for the sun.
Brave, tall, and unafraid cuz he lived through the storm.
His red coat slowly fell.
Leaving him (?) exposed.
I (?) from steps too close and long from steps to far.
Will you always shelter me?
Will you always shelter me?
Etched my heart into your (bark).
Remember me.
Will you always shelter me?
Will you always shelter me?
Etched my heart into your (bark).
Remember me.
Will you always shelter me?
Will you always shelter me?
Etched my heart into your (bark).
Remember me.
(music)
His whisper spread warmth through my face.
Intoxicated by his limbs.
I fell, floated to the ground on a bed filled with dreams.
Weak, wilting from his thirst.
I gently gave him a drink.
Careful not to get involved cuz soon the fall will come.
Wi-Wi-Will you always shelter me?
Will you always shelter me?
Etched my heart into your (bark).
Remember me.
Will you always shelter me?
Will you always shelter me?
Etched my heart into your (bark).
Remember me.
(music)
Will you always shelter me?
Will you always shelter me?
Etched my heart into your (bark).
Remember me.
Will you always shelter me?

Will you always shelter me?
Etched my heart into your (bark).
Remember me.
