

From The Heart

Belinda Carlisle

All the things I used to do
Don't seem to mean much anymore
Every face and every place
Were lost along the way I'm sitting here all by myself
Looking in the mirror
Holding an old photograph
Oh, how it used to be Everything comes from the heart
I believe that it's true
Time changes pride from the heart
It's all from the heart All the words I used to say
Don't seem to mean much anymore
Every hurt and every word
Were bought along the way I'm sitting here all by myself
Looking out the window
I'm playing an old record
The same old melody Every word comes from the heart
I believe that it's true
Time mends each hurt from the heart
It's all from the heart There's no need to hide inside
This old world anymore
You're standing here right next to me
I turn to you and smile Love, it begins from the heart
I believe that it's true
Time changes pride from the heart
I believe that it's true Every word comes from the heart
I believe that it's true
Time mends each hurt from the heart
I believe that it's true Love, it begins from the heart
I believe that it's true
