

Kingdom

Ellie Goulding

[Verse 1]

I see flames in your eyes
And I don't recognise what you said, how you said it
Words just terrorize

And my heart radiates but with you, froze to ice

Empty in disguise[Pre-Chorus]

Keep singing it louder, louder

Break the hearts to win

Just bring yourself higher, higher

Hanging by a string And there was no love here to save[Chorus]

So be a king now for a day

And I'll be a queen of my mistakes

And when you sing out all your pain

You wear the crown Feel no shame in your, your, your, your, your kingdom

Don't, don't, don't, don't hide in your kingdom

Your, your, your, your, your kingdom

Don't, don't, don't, don't woah[Verse 2]

Did you think you were fair

To say you never cared

Now you sit on your throne

A lonely love affair[Pre-Chorus - Variation]

You're singing it louder, louder

To break the hearts you lose

Just build yourself higher, higher

I got nothing to prove Cause there was no love here to save[Chorus]

So be a king now for a day

I'll be a queen of my mistakes

And when you sing out all your pain

You wear the crown Feel no shame in your, your, your, your, your kingdom

Don't, don't, don't, don't hide in your kingdom

Your, your, your, your, your kingdom

Don't, don't, don't, don't, woah Your, your, your, your, your kingdom

Don't, don't, don't, don't hide in your kingdom

Your, your, your, your, your kingdom

Don't, don't, don't, don't, woah[Chorus]

So be a king now for a day

I'll be a queen of my mistakes

And when you sing out all your pain

You wear the crown Feel no shame in your, your, your, your, your kingdom

Don't, don't, don't, don't hide in your kingdom
Your, your, your, your, your kingdom
Don't, don't, don't, don't, woah
