

Man of the King

Kalmah

Life, black and white
Without the red in my eyes
Smile, toothless grin
Before the king is inside me I want to believe in the power higher than we know
But the scene is getting darker in everything I own
So I will dive into dreamworld and clear everything
And the things getting brighter 'cause I am the man of the King Life, black and white
Without the red in my eyes
Smile, toothless grin
Before the king is inside me
You might say I'm nothing, 'cause I get nothing done
But do not deny me, I have the strength within
The people around you also follow the dream
Take a look, I am not the only one of the King Hey, now I'm saved
From the world today
I've found my way
To get away End, it is nothing
'Cause I have sworn my oath
Like the others
I believe in the powered dream
I don't give a damn because I am the man of the King
The hell with the rest, I am the man of the King
Right, yeah, I am the man of the King
Simply the man of the King
