

Save Me

Brown Floyd

Well you look in the mirror and what do you see a starin back at your eyes and ain't it gettin any clearer that you can't change your life just because you never tried and ain't it strange these days in my lifewell you gotta save me you gotta save me cmon and save me baby save me from myselfoh yeah and i looked around goin from town to town most everyday and then i look in here eyes and it's no surprise that she's comin my way most every day oh yeah
